UNCONFIRMED MINUTES OF THE COUNCIL MEETING
HELD AT MARFORD MILL 19th MAY AT 12:00AM

The Chairman said that he had been approached by Council members regarding the plan to Co-opt Ian Coghill for another year on Council. The timeline for this should be at the beginning of the next Council meeting in July.

The Co-option was proposed by Oliver McCullough and seconded by Chris Barker

The Chairman asked Council if there were any questions or concerns before he asks Ian Coghill. Council asked if the position of Ian Coghill on A2S if there would be a conflict if he was to be co-opted onto BASC Council, the CEO stated that there has been no conflict declared.

A council member asked if it could be explored to co-opt others onto Council from a diversity point of view. The Chairman stated that the plan will go to the E&F Committee in July as Governance Subgroup are developing recommendations in this area.

The Chairman asked Council if there are any objections to Ian Coghill being co-opted please advise him. There were no objections from Council.

Action - The Chairman will approach Ian Coghill prior to July council meeting.

The Chairman confirmed that the AGM will commence at 10:30am in the DOW.
