

My first water retrieve from my young dog. He swam out to a teal straight over a line of decoys and didn't get distracted and worked his way back to me.

I remember thinking how amazing the birds markings were and how small! I was pleased with the shot as it didn't suffer.

45 years old when the memory was collected; 40 years old when it was created.