

Shooting is worth £2bn to the UK economy. It brings money and tourism into rural areas.

84%

of shooters said

shooting benefited their local economy and business

£246m

Amount spent locally by shooters on food and accommodation per year

4.13m The estimated number of visitor-nights generated annually by shooting providers

13,829 The number of visitors permits for shooting in the UK annually

5,200

Number of the equivalent paid, full-time jobs that shooting supports in the food and accommodation sector

54% of shooting businesses said their activity led to local overnight stays

Around 81% of game meat sold for food stays in the local area

59 The average number of visitor-nights generated annually by each shoot

Around 30% increase in out-of-season hotel occupancy in shooting areas

Shooting accounts for almost 10% of the total amount spent on outdoor recreation every year

Shooters spend 3.9m work days a year on conservation, often in tourist areas

- 90% of English grouse moors fall within a National Park or AONB
- 75% of heather moorland is found in Britain because of grouse moor management
- 90% of land managed for wildfowling is in SSSIs
- 91% of shooters surveyed said they would spend less time outdoors if they could not shoot

BASC

