The benefits of BASC membership

With a membership of over 148,000, BASC is the largest, strongest and oldest shooting organisation in the UK. We want all our members to support our five strategic objectives:

A strong and unified voice for shooting

All party backing for shooting

Balanced comment in the media for shooting

High standards in shooting

Opportunity to go shooting

This is what your membership fee is used for – you help us maintain focus on these objectives. By delivering on these, BASC is confident that the future of shooting will be secured.

However, we know that you will also expect an excellent package of benefits and services from BASC. This is what we aim to deliver. With BASC membership you will receive:

- £10 million third-party liability cover
- £10 million product liability cover
- £10 million employer liability cover
- £250,000 legal expenses cover
- £50,000 personal accident cover

Six copies of Shooting & Conservation magazine every year

Free access to all our experts for help and advice on all aspects of firearms, gamekeeping, game shooting, stalking, wildfowling, pigeon shooting, airguns and gundogs

Free access to our advisory services helping you to improve your shoot

Free access to our advisory services to help you secure shooting opportunities
