

The British Association for Shooting & Conservation

TRAINEE GAME & GUNDOGS OFFICER 12 Month Contract

Starting salary: National Living Wage

BASC is the largest sporting shooting organisation in the UK, serving a growing membership of over 155,000 and a wide variety of stakeholder and public interests. It acts as a representative body for sporting shooting - fostering opportunity, safety, high standards and wildlife conservation.

BASC is offering the opportunity for an individual to assist the Game and Gundogs Team while learning from their individual experience and expertise. The trainee will develop the ability to provide an informed and specialist point of contact in relation to gamekeeping and gundog matters.

Working within a small team and reporting to the Head of Game and Gundogs this role will be based at BASC Head Office but with some public facing duties and attendance at a number of specific events.

The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- Significant personal involvement with shooting sports with knowledge of countryside skills such as game shooting, game keeping, gundogs or an associated activity
- Good interpersonal skills
- An enthusiasm to learn and develop skills and abilities
- Commitment and ability to respond to the requirements of the role
- A good standard of education
- A relevant wildlife/countryside management qualification or working towards one would be an advantage.
